

Junior Communication Design

Intern position

Do you have a passion for design and have an ability to create visuals, the capability and software skills to pull it all together and make sense of it all as a cohesive brand story for any industry?

Are you curious, driven, can think strategically and independently, are creative and design-oriented and possess a team and entrepreneurial spirit?

If you can cope with a bit of creative madness in an open plan, fast-paced team environment, have the passion and some of the skills suited to our industry... apply to be a Firebrander and join us on our quest to take our client's stories to the world. Firebrand is a digital transformation agency with attitude.

Our ideals (like to haves):

- Able to take direction, work to a creative brief, be self-driven, and work to a deadline and budget.
- Customer-focused with great verbal and written communication skills.
- Studying a 3rd-year Communication Design or equivalent degree.
- Skills in design and experience in Adobe CS (Illustrator, Indesign, Photoshop).
- Blessed with an eye for design, layout, brand and messaging.
- Able to use Google Suite (Docs, Sheets, Gmail, Drive).

Read some of last year's intern stories at → https://intern.firebrand.nz/

If the above sounds like you, apply via the JobDun website → http://ow.ly/RmwJ50KrJn3

